On 10/21/69, [redacted]
Catalina Council, Boy Scouts of America, 350 North Campbell Avenue, Tucson, Arizona, advised SA [redacted] [redacted] that on 6/21-23/69, two rifles described above, Serial Numbers 204-269 and 202-147, were stolen from a gun locker at Camp Lawton in the Coronado National Forest in Pima County, Arizona. Sometime in 1968, rifle with Serial Number 293-442 was lost and this loss was discovered by inventory. No suspects were developed by the Pima County Sheriff's Office of the theft on 6/21/23/69.

[redacted] advised that the rifles are property of, the U. S. Government and are on loan to the Boy Scouts from the Director of Civilian Marksmanship, Department of Army, Washington, D.C. The rifles were actually obtained from the Red River Arsenal at Texarkana, Texas.
